The March Week Of Prayer And Home Missions

BY JOHN CAYLOR

One of the outstanding features of the March Week of Prayer and the Annie Armstrong Offering for home missions is the fact that hundreds of thousands of women are meeting daily and praying fervently for home missions and home missionaries about whom they are studying. The Week of Prayer undergirds all the work of the Home Mission Board. Income from the week's offering provides the Board with half its operating income. The goal of a million dollars is worthy and WMU leaders optimistically expect the goal to be reached.

EXTENT OF HOME MISSION FIELDS

In 1845 when the Home Mission Board was constituted there were fourteen states from Maryland to Arkansas. Later came Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, and Illinois; then California, Kansas, Oregon, Washington, and Alaska.

Home mission work was started in Cuba in 1886; in Panama in 1905; and in Alaska in 1949.

The great challenge of the West has sent the Home Mission Board to the rescue of Southern Baptist people in Colorado, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Utah, West Virginia and Wyoming. The geography of the territory stretches over three million square miles with a population of 109,140,695.

Program Released For Pastors Meet

The program for the Pastors' Conference just prior to the Southern Baptist Convention, May 4-10, has just been released.

One Mississippian, Dr. John E. Barnes, pastor Main Street Church, Hattiesburg, and president of the State Convention, is listed on the program.

He will lead the devotional period at the opening session Monday evening.

The annual conference will open Monday evening and close Tuesday evening, just prior to the opening of the convention proper Wednesday morning.

"We've a Story to Tell" will be the theme of the conference.

Evangelist Billy Graham will close the meeting with an address Tuesday evening.

NEW OFFICERS OF MISSIONARIES ASSOCIATION

Rev. H. H. Ward, of Kosciusko, left, retiring president, congratulates Rev. R. B. Patterson, of Corinth, newly-elected president of the State Associational Missionaries Association just after election of officers last Wednesday at Blue Mountain College. Looking on are Rev. O. B. Anderson (left) of Long Beach, new secretary-treasurer and Rev. Roy Self of Morton, new vice-president.

Patterson Elected Missionaries Head

Rev. R. B. Patterson, of Corinth, newly-elected area missionary for Tishomingo and Itawamba counties was elected president of the State Associational Missionaries organization at their annual meeting conducted this past week on the campus of Blue Mountain College.

Elected as vice-president was Rev. Roy Self of Morton, missionary for Scott County while Rev. O. B. Anderson of Long Beach was elected as secretary-treasurer.

The group elected to meet Feb. 15-18 next year on campus of Mississippi College, Clinton.

The program this year was declared to be one of the best thus far.

The meeting opened Monday night and adjourned Thursday at noon.

Southern Baptists Vote Emergency Relief Fund

RICHMOND, Va. —(RNS)— A special $28,000 fund to meet emergency relief needs in overseas areas was appropriated by the relief committee of the Southern Baptist Convention's Foreign Mission Board at a meeting here.

More than one-third of the sum, $10,000 will be used to help families that suffered distress in the recent floods in the Netherlands.

Other allocations of the emergency fund include: $10,000 to Korea to supplement the $100,000 previously sent that country by Southern Baptists; $5,000 to Germany for the aid of refugees from the Soviet Zone; $2,500 to be used in starting a Bible school in East Germany as a joint effort with American and other Baptist groups and $500 to buy a site for a chapel for refugees at Singen, Baden, on the West Germany-Switzerland border.

Permanency In Soul-Winning Efforts Through the Sunday School

A. V. WASHBURN

No two groups of workers in Southern Baptist life have more in common than the Departments of Evangelism and Sunday School Work. Every emphasis and effort of the one makes use of and adds to the effectiveness of the other.

USEFUL IN THE CHIEF WORK OF A CHURCH

Through the years there has been a growing acceptance of the Sunday school as a vital factor in carrying out the basic functions of a church. Certainly wherever pastors have understood the Sunday school and made use of it, it has been fruitful in the highest degree.

Especially has this been true in the matter of winning the lost to Christ. Billy Graham has had marked success in winning multitudes of people to Christ, but he agrees that the constant, permanent effort of the churches in the field of evangelism is superior, and has given the highest evaluation of the Sunday school as the effective agency of the church in reaching, teaching, and winning the multitudes.

In this connection Dr. Gaines S. Dobbins has summarized the unique contribution of the Sunday school in these words, "Where Bible teaching precedes, evangelism has its richest fruitage; and where Bible teaching follows, evangelism has its most permanent results."

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENROLMENT AND BAPTISMS PARALLEL

Year in and year out it is discovered that between 80 and 90 per cent of all those who are baptised into the fellowship of our churches come out of the Sunday school enrolment. Furthermore, in recent years there has been an almost exact parallel between the number

Cartoonist Jack Hamm Receives Honor Medal

WACO, Texas, Feb. 21—Jack Hamm, a quiet, 37-year-old Baylor University art teacher who "draws for God", received one of the nation's highest honors Sunday.

His cartoon, Relay That Must Not Fail, has been selected by Freedoms Foundation as the outstanding drawing for the cause of freedom in 1952. Vice-President Richard M. Nixon handed him the Freedoms Foundation honor medal and a check for $1,000 in Washington Birthday ceremonies at Valley Forge, Pa., Sunday afternoon.

Hamm regularly draws a weekly religious cartoon for 738 newspapers and magazines in 45 American states and 17 foreign countries. His winning cartoon pictured a runner, "Everyone of us," handing to the extended hand of "future generations" a blazing torch labeled "Freedom of inalienable rights."

Most of his cartoons have a scriptural basis, and he thinks of them as sermons done in black and white. With them he "preaches" to a congregation estimated at 28,000,000.

Congress Gets Resolutions To Establish Chapel

WASHINGTON, D. C. (RNS) Resolutions to establish a chapel for meditation and prayer in the United States Capitol have been introduced by Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) and Sen. A. A. (Mike) Monroney (D-Okla.) in the House and Senate.

The resolutions are similar to those which the two congressmen sponsored in the last Congress.

In a joint statement the legislators said they had received much encouragement from members of Congress and interest and support has developed throughout the country to an extent that they are hopeful the proposal will be approved.

The chapel would be furnished with the utmost simplicity. It would not be available for formal worship services, but would be reserved for the exclusive use of congressmen who desire to have a quiet place where they can meditate and pray.

"It would also have value," the sponsors said, "in symbolizing the principles of freedom of worship and religious unity which are expounded in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution."

Three regional Sunday school conventions will be held again this year with the northern section of the state meeting in Tupelo at the Calvary Church on Tuesday, March 10. The central section will be held at the First Church in Meridian on Wednesday, March 11. The Southern section will be held with the First Church, Gulfport on Thursday, March 12.

Three conventions were held last year and the same has been planned for this year. Each convention will be for one full day, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions. The program is the same for each convention. People are invited to attend the Convention nearest them. According to Dr. E. C. Williams, State Secretary, eight workers from the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, will be on the program. They are Mrs. W. L. Blankinship, supt. of Cradle Roll Work; Miss Allene Bryan, supt. of Primary Work; Miss Annie Ward Byrd, Editorial Associate; J. P. Edmunds, Department of Survey, statistics and information; W. A. Harrell, Secretary, Department of Church Architecture; Mrs. H. R. Jones, supt. of Nursery Work; A. V. Washburn, secretary of Teaching and Training; and Miss Helen Young, supt. of Beginner Work.

Other out of state workers on the program are Miss Mary Ellen Caver, associate State Sunday School Secretary, Nashville; Jesse Daniel, State Sunday School Secretary, Nashville; and Mrs. Homer L. Grice, Southwide approved Junior Worker, Nashville.

In addition to Dr. Williams, Secretary; Paul D. Booth, Associate Secretary; and Miss Carolyn Madison, Elementary Secretary, all of the State Sunday School Department, Mrs. O. M. Jones, manager of the Baptist Book Store, Jackson and Rev. Otis Seal, pastor of the First Church, Itta Bena are announced as program personnel.

WOMAN PUTS LIFETIME SAVINGS IN MEMORIAL

Thirty-five years of hard work, sacrifice, planning, and a long train trip to Richmond, Va., preceded the visit of a woman to the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board headquarters one day in 1946.

A person of moderate financial standing, she wanted her lifetime savings of $30,000 invested in perpetuity for Christ, so she chose to establish an endowment fund with the Board, the interest from which would be paid to her during the remainder of her life and afterwards would be used in the Board's mission work.

ities to discover where Southern Baptists may best use home mission resources and energies. It seeks to unify and co-ordinate our Baptist forces for common interests and tasks such as evangelistic crusades, city missions, and the Rural Church Program. Ranchers, Indians, Negroes, migrants, underprivileged, isolated, language groups, Jews, deaf, servicemen—all are home mission responsibilities and the Board seeks to serve them. Through its magazine, Southern Baptist Home Missions, its mission study books, visual aids, student missionaries, camps, conferences, and Schools of Missions the Board offers an educational ministry.

GOOD WILL CENTERS

There are about forty Good Will Centers in the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention. Besides operating sixteen of these centers the Home Board furnishes conferences and leadership for the improvement of workers in all the centers. In the past ten years the number of centers operated by the Home Mission Board has doubled and the number of conversions has multiplied five times.

THE WEARY — THE WAYWARD THE UNFORTUNATE

The Men's Rescue Home in New Orleans is twenty-five years old. In a quarter of a century it has sheltered and cared for more than 750,000 homeless men. Services have been conducted every night since it was founded and 16,048 men have confessed Christ as Saviour and Lord. Such homes are needed in East St. Louis, Baltimore, San Diego, San Francisco, and other cities. The Woman's Emergency Home was founded to care for the prodigal girl when help and friendship are most needed. Nearly a hundred women are cared for every year in the home. The Baptist Baby Home is housed in the same building as the Woman's Emergency Home. The babies have been adopted by foster parents living in eleven states. More space is urgently needed for both homes.

THE LANGUAGE GROUPS

There are approximately 8,500,000 people in our Convention territory that may be classified as belonging to the language groups. Some speak only their native tongue, but most of them speak English. There are about forty nationalities included in the minority groups. Now there are 222 missionaries among them. The work should be greatly expanded and the Annie Armstrong Offering will help provide funds for this work.

CHURCH BUILDING FUNDS

Again attention is called to the need of more money for church

Chaney Selected R. E. A. President

Tom Chaney, educational director of Calvary Church, Jackson, was elected president of the State Religious Education Association at its annual meeting held last week at Parkway Church in Jackson.

Elected as vice-president was Dr. Norman O'Neil, professor of Religious Education at Mississippi College, Clinton, while Miss Evelyn Irwin, educational secretary of Parkway Church, Jackson, was selected as secretary-treasurer.

Rev. W. G. Watson was elected as pastor-advisor. A fine program was presented at the annual meeting, covering every phase of religious education work.

Permanency In

of baptisms and the increase in Sunday school enrolment. This exact parallel, of course, does not always hold. But one truth is clearly evident, when Sunday school growth is seriously curtailed, there is almost always a marked decline in baptisms.

Sunday school enrolment is one of the most direct and productive evangelistic approaches. There are approximately 800,000 unsaved people enrolled in our Sunday schools above eight years of age. If, on the average, 80 per cent of the baptisms reported last year came from the Sunday school, that means that approximately one-third of the unsaved people enrolled in Sunday school were baptised last year. The remaining baptisms drawing from the great mass of unenlisted people would represent some ratio as 1 to 240; while the other figures would indicate that approximately 1 out of every 3 evangelistic prospects enrolled in the Sunday school were won during the year.

There is certainly another side to the picture also. Southern Baptists lose out of their Sunday school enrolment large numbers of people, and most of those who are lost from the enrolment are those who have not been won to Christ. This is another way of saying that a Sunday school which is not evangelistic will not keep on growing; so there are two great truths which we must forever keep in mind, and each is qualified by the other: "Enrol them and win them," and "Win them or lose them."

READINESS FOR REVIVAL Through the Sunday School

There will be no revival where there is no readiness for revival. Spiritual preparation on the part of the people in the church through prayer and the presence and power of the Holy Spirit underlies every successful evangelistic campaign. Other elements in preparation building loan funds. Churches are expanding. Home mission work is opening new fields and making the demands for new churches even greater. There should be $10,000,000.00 in the church building loan fund. Now there is less than $3,000,000.00.

HOME MISSIONS COOPERATING

Every phase of home missions is Convention-wide. Chaplains service, evangelism, education, co-operative missions, direct missions radio, Negro work—all of it is for all our people.

HOME MISSIONS APPEALING

Paul said, "Help those women." The Home Mission Board appeals to all our people to help in all our work by reinforcing the March Week of Prayer and Annie Armstrong Offering with liberal giving.

New Work Started In H-Bomb Area

Rev. C. R. Murphy, formerly city superintendent of missions of Shreveport, La., has been named by the Home Mission Board to serve as missionary in the H-Bomb area in the Savannah River Basin in the area of Aiken, South Carolina, and Augusta, Ga.

He is beginning his work March 1 and with his family is moving to the field immediately.

tion are essential also, which may be made practical through the use of the Sunday school:

1. Constantly Searching Out the Lost:

Lost people will not be won until lost people are known. Taking a religious census is at the very heart of successful Sunday school growth and successful evangelism. The lost multitudes must be seen. The lost multitudes must be placed upon the hearts of Christian people and soul winners. Until the lost multitudes are in our hearts they can never be in our Sunday schools, in our preaching services, in our churches.

2. Constantly Seeking to Enrol the Lost People in Bible Study.

The quickest route to winning the lost is enlistment in Bible study. Does the leveling off in the number of baptisms this past year indicate the need for bringing more lost people under the influence of Bible study and evangelistic preaching? I am firmly convinced that the emphasis of "A Million More in '54" is of divine origin. I believe that it has come to us at this time to give us a needed boost in every phase of our work.

Surely it will mean a tremendous increase in the number of baptisms. There is but a step from a million more enrolled in Sunday school to a million more won to Christ.

3. Constantly Urging Teachers and Officers to Win the Lost.

We have yet a long-way to go in achieving the ideal of every Sunday school officer and teacher a soul winner. Many of them are fervent soul winners, and doubtless it is true for the most part that the soul winners of any church are largely found among the Sunday school officers and teachers.

Certainly officers and teachers are in position to be the most effective soul winners in a church, and as they become so every phase of church life prospers.

In all these ways, and more, the Sunday school makes possible a permanency in soul-winning efforts and a constant readiness for revival.

Perennial efforts lead to perennial evangelism.

A. N. Abercrombie To Be Sandersville Evangelist

Rev. W. H. Merritt, pastor, announces that the Sandersville Baptist Church will have its Spring revival March 8-13.

Rev. A. N. Abercrombie, pastor of the Bethlehem Church, Jones county, will be the evangelist. Chalk Talks will be used by Mr. Abercrombie to illustrate hymns and sermon subjects at each service. Pictures are rapidly drawn in vivid colors by Mr. Abercrombie while he reviews stories connected with the inspiration, composition, and successful use of hymns as aids to evangelism.

The Sandersville Ensemble will furnish special music for the Chalk Talks. The choir will be directed by the Rev. Thomas Balch, student at Clarke College, during the evening services.

000,000 every week. And therein lies the real story of Jack Hamm.

He does not make a penny out of these cartoons which probably are the most widely circulated of any single newspaper feature. Rather, he personally goes in debt some $225 every week to pay for production and mailing costs.

He gives the cartoons away because he is convinced that God wants it that way.

Bills mount pretty high at times, like the $4,000 indebtedness which had accumulated early this month. But some "miracle" always happens, and friends of the cause—many of whom Hamm does not know personally—mail in small and large checks to make the venture solvent again.

"Some call it foolishness," Hamm asserted, "but I call it faith."

Comment: Mr. Hamm's cartoons appear weekly in the Baptist Record.—DW.

The memorial fund, named for the giver, is safely invested in interest-bearing bonds and other approved securities. By January this year the earnings from the fund aggregated $8,507.38, every cent of which she has added to the fund along with enough additional money to make it total $40,845.81. Now she is grateful that she envisioned the worth-whileness of creating a fund which might be increased by earnings on the investment.

The donor's goal is to reach $50,000; and in a recent letter to Treasurer Everett L. Deane she said, "For the next five years, if I am in the land of the living, I shall be driving hard for another $10,000."

Waters Heads New Home Mission Post

REV. LELAND WATERS

Today the Home Mission Board named Rev. Leland H. Waters, of Richmond, Va., to leadership in a new department in the field of juvenile delinquency and broken homes. The new work is made possible by increased income through the Advance Program.

Mr. Waters has resigned as executive secretary of the Richmond Baptist Association, in which position he has served for the past ten years. Richmond Baptists under his leadership started ten new churches, eight chapels, a Good Will Center, and a boarding home for working girls.

He is beginning his work with the Home Mission Board March 1.

Figures Reveal Facts

Elsewhere in this issue of the Baptist Record, Dr. Chester L. Quarles, Executive Secretary, makes his quarterly report to the churches. We should be encouraged by the facts revealed in this report. On the other hand the same report reveals the fact that some churches in Mississippi have not had a share in sending the gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth. And this is disappointing.

Of the 1,694 Baptist churches in Mississippi 1,278 gave something to the world-wide program of Mississippi Baptists. Only 416 churches failed to give anything for the cause of Christ outside their own churches.

The greatest tragedy in the fact that 416 churches did not give to mission causes outside of their own church is that pastors, deacons, Sunday school teachers, and other church leaders have missed the joy received in carrying out the Great Commission of Jesus.

Certainly the Gospel will continue to be spread to the uttermost parts of the world, whether we are obedient to the command or not. But we are the ones who miss out.

Secretary Quarles has led Mississippi Baptists in a marvelous manner—both spiritually and financially. With God's guidance and His chosen leader, Mississippi Baptists should write even a better record during the remaining months of 1953.

—BR—

Keep The Pulpit Central

During the past week, the Building Committee of our church has had occasion to meet with representatives from different manufacturers of church furniture. After examining the catalogues showing designs and arrangements made by draftsmen of the companies, as well as photographs of actual installations, we were impressed with the observation that most of the sketches and pictures featured a divided chancel, which is that part of a church used by the minister. Upon questioning one of the representatives, we were told that the divided chancel is becoming increasingly popular with churches which they serve.

Our interest in the matter was heightened when evidence was produced that the divided chancel fast is becoming popular with denominations which are considered close allies with Baptists in the South, and even in Mississippi, in proclaiming the gospel message, and which for years have used the central pulpit in their worship as have Baptists. We then became gravely concerned when it was noted that some Baptist churches are intentionally, or unthoughtfully, arranging a divided chancel in their houses of worship.

In the divided chancel, the pulpit is placed far to one side and a lectern is placed on the opposite side. Elevated above the pulpit level and centrally situated between the pulpit and the lectern is the altar, which consists usually of a decorated table, a cross, and candles on either side of the cross, an arrangement definitely influenced by the Catholic Church.

Baptists maintain that the Bible is our authority, and that the message of the Book should be central in our worship. Let us hold rigidly to our heritage and keep the pulpit at the center in our churches, and the message of the Scriptures primal in our worship.

—Rev. James H. Fairchild.

—BR—

State Sunday School Conventions

On other pages in this paper the reader's attention is called to the one-day State Sunday School Conventions meeting in Tupelo, Meridian, and Gulfport March 10-12.

The program has been arranged by the State Secretary, Dr. E. C. Williams, and will prove helpful to workers in every phase of the Sunday school.

At the very heart of our program of evangelism is the Sunday school. Year in and year out it is discovered that between 80 and 90 per cent of all those who are baptized into the fellowship of our churches come out of the Sunday school enrollment.

The Conventions should strengthen every Sunday school worker in reaching and teaching boys and girls, men and women the Word of God.

—BR—

Does It Make A Difference?

It is not unusual to hear members of Baptist churches say, "Church doctrines really don't matter; one denomination is as good as another." This light-hearted and seemingly charitable statement certainly is foreign to the teachings of the New Testament. This is only another way of saying that the commandments of Christ were of no consequence, and we may feel at liberty to alter or completely change them at will without loss of favor with our Father.

Absolute obedience to God should be the constant motive and purpose of every child of God. As was said of the New Testament Church after Pentecost, "They continued in the apostle's doctrine." Acts 2:42. Moses might well have argued that striking the rock was just as well as speaking to it, as God commanded, since it produced the desired results. Not so with God who has placed His highest premium on personal obedience as is said of Him by Samuel, "Hath Jehovah as great delight in burnt offering and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of Jehovah? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice and to hearken than the fat of rams." Disobedience cost Moses the great ambition of his life, that of leading the children of Israel into the promised land. Disobedience made Samson a weakling and an outcast from the favor and purpose of God. The Disobedience of Achan cost Joshua's shameful defeat and dishonorable death for the offender. Disobedience cost Samuel his throne, the luxury and riches of the palace, and brought the ignominy of suicide on loved ones and friends.

Compromising the doctrines of the New Testament Church in disobedience is simply minimizing the commandments of Christ and sacrificing the favor of God. We are reminded of this unchanging truth as Jehovah said, "This people will forsake me and Break My Covenant which I have made with them. Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them. Deut. 31:16b-17a.

Now we ought to place proper emphasis on the doctrines of the New Testament and teach our young Christians that to run off after other winds of doctrines or to enter religious schools that say to the world that they are non-denominational or non-doctrinal is to invite the disfavor of God. Mississippi Baptists and Southern Baptists have great colleges that are second to none, and no thinking young Christian leader that expects to serve in our Baptist cause will pass them by for schools that stand for things that we cannot condone.

Our doctrines are vitally important as the foundation of our faith, and we must cling to them if we are to expect God's continued blessings on Southern Baptists. —It does make a difference...

—Rev. Van H. Hardin.

Our Readers Write

MISSIONARY MAKES REQUEST FOR BOOKS

To the readers of the BAPTIST RECORD: In Nigeria we have a need of books. Our American people who have many books do not realize how much our pastors, teachers, students, and laymen love books. Their first need is religious books.

I appeal to churches and individuals to search out books of a religious nature; study course books, theology, sermons, pastor's manuals, Bibles, concordances, Bible dictionaries, etc., etc. List them and send me the list. If they can be used I will take them to Nigeria when I return in the Fall. I will place them in the hands of those to whom they will be the most valuable. Our Seminary uses the study course books commonly used by the churches here. So does our college for boys and the college for girls.

I would like to request also books written by missionaries of the Nigerian field about the field and about their work there.

Lastly, I would like to make an appeal for information concerning the whereabouts of the family of Rev. W. T. Lumbley, missionary to Nigeria in the latter part of the 19th century, from Yazoo County, Mississippi, and later a resident of Meridian, Miss.

Books sent to Nigeria in the above manner will go directly into the hands of those who are engaged in soul-winning. Books of a historical nature written by our missionaries are requested for personal use in historical research on our Nigerian field.

Dear Mr. Goodrich,

It has been a great pleasure to receive the Baptist Record week after week. As all Mississippi Baptists should be, I am, of course, interested in events which occur from time to time; also the news of foreign missions. There is no means other than the Baptist Record whereby I could be so completely informed of the work of Mississippi Baptists.

I will be returning to the States soon.
Sincerely,
CARL O. MORRIS.

Rt. 3, Sumrall, Miss.

Dear Mr. Goodrich:

I wish that all churches would pray for their pastors instead of criticizing them. Criticizing pastors not only tears up the churches, but tears up the minds of little children. My prayer is that pastors and people will cooperate together and do great work for the Lord.

—Mrs. Grady Stringer.

Congratulations to Overton Chapel Church, Tishomingo county on joining the popular and progressive EVERY FAMILY Plan of Baptist Record. The pastor is Rev. Hansel Russell. Not only has the church adopted the Every Family Plan, but they are including one of their members who is in the armed service. Every church should do likewise.

Tishomingo County now has Record readers as follows: Belmont 2; Bethlehem 19; BURNSVILLE 35; Cross Roads 1; Golden Central 3; IUKA 105; Mt. Moriah 19; Mt. Vernon 12; NEW LIBERTY 21; New Prospect 11; OVERTON CHAPEL 12; PADEN 24; SOUTH CROSS ROADS 51; Tishomingo 1; and OLDHAM 26.

Zion Rest, Wayne County

Having tried the promotion plan, members of Zion Rest Church, Wayne county felt that they needed the Baptist Record as a part of their program.

They have adopted the EVERY FAMILY Plan and from now on they plan to keep up with Baptist affairs at home and abroad.

Warren county Record readers are now listed as follows:

CALVARY 88; BUCATUNNA 35; CLARA 42; Clear Creek 6; Coyt 7; EVERGREEN 42; MT. ZION 58; Pleasant Grove 5; STATE LINE 49; Waynesboro, First 8; and ZION REST 22.

Harmony In Warren
Sends List

Another Mississippi College ministerial student has come through for the Baptist Record. Rev. Len Turner, pastor of Harmony church in Warren county has led this church to make the Baptist Record a part of its program. This means that the members of that church are going to keep up with Baptist affairs at home and abroad.

Record readers in Warren county are now listed as follows: Antioch 13, CALVARY 51, GRACE 32, TRINITY 78, VICKSBURG, BOWMAR AVE. 204, VICKSBURG, FIRST 558, VICKSBURG, IMMANUEL 69, VICKSBURG, NORTH-SIDE 48, WAYSIDE 37, WOOD-LAWN 96, and Harmony 12.

Zion Rest

Zion Rest Church in Wayne County took advantage of the free trial offer of the Baptist Record a few weeks ago and asked that the Baptist Record be sent for two months to 20 names. After the trial period the church clerk, W. B. Bradley, writes and encloses the money to pay for sending the Baptist Record to the twenty names plus two more, whose names he enclosed.

Record readers in Wayne County are now listed as follows: CALVARY 88; BUCATUNNA 35; CLARA 42; Clear Creek 6; Coyt 7; EVERGREEN 42; MT. ZION 58; Pleasant Grove 5; STATE LINE 49; Waynesboro, First 8; and ZION REST 22.

You are going out where the only certainty is uncertainty. But you are walking out on God's grace, and the gain so far outweighs the loss that it is a credit experience. You have little to lose which can be taken away from you; you are gaining that which can never be taken away from you. — M. Theron Rankin, in charge to missionary appointees.

Milan Police Chief Bars
Church of Christ Notices

MILAN, Italy (RNS) — Police Chief Daniele Bordieri denied formal request by leaders of the American-sponsored Church of Christ in Italy for permission to put up posters announcing a five-day lecture series here in connection with the opening of one of the sect's churches in Milan.

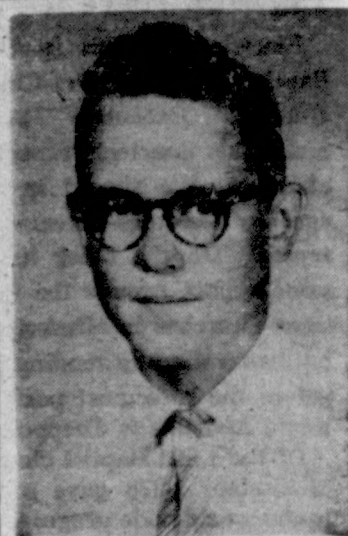

The police chief said he had turned down the request because "Italian law prohibits the holding of religious meetings by unauthorized preachers in an unauthorized church."

The Rev. Melvin J. Pownall, Coatesville, Pa., North Italy leader of the Protestant group, protests the police action as "serious and unjust" on the ground that meetings were scheduled "not as religious services but as lectures. Meanwhile, the pope of Rome, counsel for the Church of Christ, filed an appeal with the Attorney General for an order withdrawing the ban.

Branches of the sect throughout Italy were closed by police last fall but, for the most part, were permitted to re-open tentatively after intervention by the American Embassy.

Southwest Jr. — Four joined Summit Church; plans made for two programs in association.

MISCELLANEA

March's Baptist Student contains "Penpricks of College Profs (or Diary of Eccentricities)" by Riley Munday (glad he didn't mention my name); picture and sketch of State prexy Woodie Williams, as Mississippi's contributions and they alone are worth the price of a copy.

Any volunteers for work among Miss. Negroes this summer? Any boys, particularly, who will volunteer for work among Indians in our state?

Pastors, we believe a wisely planned and led Youth Revival will be a much-needed blessing to your church and community. Write us for suggestions.

It's time, BSUs, to bear down on First Magnitude efforts. We're hoping we'll have several new ones this year.

As our work grows in size and influence, we thank God and pray for more growth. And the need for an Associate State BSU Sec'y becomes more acute. We believe Miss. Baptists are going to make the employment of an Associate possible soon.

The whole month of March has as its special emphasis Summer Service Enlistment. Remember, the devil never takes a holiday so why should you, Baptist student?

Miss. State will probably be ready before long to request funds for a Student Center lot, we hear. Center sentiment continues to grow. Some of our well-to-do Baptist state college alumni we believe (and we don't think we're dreaming) are getting a bit anxious to contribute on the Center at their particular Alma Mater.

Chisholm Discharged From Army Chaplaincy

Rev. Henry L. Chisholm has recently been discharged from the army chaplaincy and is available for the pastorate.

He was formerly pastor of Elysian Fields Church in New Orleans. He attended Clarke College, Newtop, Tulane University as well as New Orleans Seminary.

Mr. Chisholm can be reached at 4302 Area Service Unit, Louisiana Military District, New Orleans, La.

The first book under the authorship of Dr. D. A. McCall, former Executive Secretary of the Mississippi Baptist Convention Board, has just been released from the Sword of the Lord publishers. Entitled THE LANGUAGE OF HEAVEN, it contains ten sermons that will ring a familiar sound to the ears of Mississippians. Some of the chapter headings are "The Language of Heaven," "Are There Tears in Heaven?" and "Going to Hell? Who Cares?" The cloth bound copy costs $2.00 and can be ordered from the Baptist Book Store.

REV. K. WILEY JARRELL

Pictured above is Rev. K. Wiley Jarrell, pastor of the Emmanuel Church, New Orleans, La., who will be the evangelist for the revival at the Sumrall Baptist Church on March 8-15. Leroy Graham, church music director, will lead the singing. Rev. Edward C. Farr is pastor.

—BR—

Rev. Billie Guthrie, nephew of Dr. W. A. Criswell, is graduating from Baylor University this term. He has been quite successful in revivals and could spend the month of March in meetings in Mississippi. Contact him at Brook's Hall, Baylor University, Waco, Texas. For reference call Dr. C. E. Wilbanks, Jackson.

Rev. Burnis Barrett, ministerial student at Mississippi College, has accepted the call of the Central Grove Church La Monroe Association. He is a son of the First Church of Columbus and will be ordained by that church.

Dr. Thomas S. Messer, Professor of the Baptist Chair of Bible at Southeast Missouri State College, Cape Girardeau, is planning a tour of Bible lands and Europe for the summer of 1953. Sailing via American Export Lines from New York on June 19, plans include parts of five days in Egypt, nineteen days in Palestine and other sections of Syria, Lebanon, Greece, and Turkey. A full twenty days will be spent in Europe with visits to Barcelona, Spain, to Rome, Pompeii, Florence, Venice, Milan, going on into Switzerland for a visit to the International Baptist Seminary at Zurich. From that point plans include Germany, Belgium, Holland, France, and England. He will return to New York City on September 2. Through the courtesy of the Foreign Mission Board plans include visits to the mission fields of Spain, Italy, Lebanon, Nazareth, and Jerusalem, along with a tour of the seminary at Zurich. Dr. Messer is a native of Hattiesburg, where he later served as pastor of the Twenty-eighth Avenue Baptist Church before going to the Bible Professorship in Cape Girardeau, Mo. This is not a conducted tour, but if some pastor, layman, or Bible teacher would like to accompany Dr. Messer on this tour, he may contact Dr. Messer at 909 Normal Avenue, Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

Trinity Church of Biloxi recently experienced a spiritual revival. Rev. Gordon Sansing, pastor of the Broadmoor Church, Jackson, was evangelist and Charles Kirby of New Orleans was song leader. Fifteen members were added with 11 coming on profession of faith. There were a number of rededications. Rev. J. Hoffman Harris is pastor.

The Presidents Men of Faith ($3.75) is a heart-stirring account of thirty-three Americans whose fellow citizens elevated them to the place of highest honor and responsibility. This book deals with the background of each of our Presidents from George Washington up to and including Dwight D. Eisenhower, with particular emphasis placed on their religious faiths. It was released on January 20 from the presses of the W. A. Wilde Company. The book is complete with full-page photographs of each president and a comprehensive index. The author is Bliss Isely. Order from the Baptist Book Store.

Opportunities offered for promoting Christian action and thinking are too great for any conscientious church to ignore the use of publicity. — Practical Church Publicity by Richmond O. Brown.

Sermon On the Parables of Jesus ($2.50) by Charles M. Crowe has recently been released by the Abingdon - Cokesbury press. The fifteen sermons clearly reveal the relevance of the parables of Jesus to contemporary life and living—to the people, morals, and psychology of America in this atomic age. Carefully thought out and clearly outlined, the sermons speak directly to the men and women in the pew in language they understand. Key points are emphasized by an abundance of realistic, opportune illustrations — stories of businessmen, scientists, radio comedians, a public school caretaker who had a school named for him, rain making in the state of Washington, an experimenter wearing inverted vision glasses, and a wide variety of other persons and events. Order from the Baptist Book Store.

William P. Phillips, who is retiring in June after twenty-eight years with the Baptist Sunday School Board, left February 15 for an eleven week's Sunday school tour of ten countries in South America.

Frank Boggs, Dallas, popular youth song leader, is engaged in a series of rallies and revivals in Royal Albert Hall, London, with Tom Rees, English lay preacher. Rees has been called the "Billy Graham of England."

The First Church of Laurel, Rev. T. R. McKibbens, pastor, has recently voted to purchase additional property adjacent to the present church property for expansion purposes.

Of particular interest to choir directors will be the Easter cantatas and services recently published by the Lorenz Publishing Company, 501 E. Third St., Dayton, Ohio. Victory Divine, which is a cantata for mixed voices, is by Edward W. Norman and costs $1.00. Life Eternal is by Fred B. Holton. It costs 80c. Peter and the Resurrection is a song and story program for Easter with optional film strip. Copies are 40c each with the optional film strip of 23 pictures costing $5.00. The Empty Tomb is by Rob Roy Peery and costs $1.00 per copy. The Easter Treasury No. 56 contains Primary, Junior and Senior selections and costs 40c. The Risen King is an Easter service with readings and lyrics by Edith Sanford Tillotson and music by Roger C. Wilson. It costs 15c single copies. Order from the Baptist Book Store.

Atlantic City, N. J. (RNS) Supplies from Lutheran World Relief valued at $20,000 will aid flood victims in England and Holland, it was announced here at the 35th annual meeting of the National Lutheran Council. The first shipments of American Lutheran gifts to reach the flooded areas will be some 20,000 lbs. of clothing diverted from shipments already on their way to Germany.

Rev. Louis Ward Stanger, formerly pastor at Walnut and Value, and associational missionary for Rankin county in 1949-50, has been elected educational director for the West-Kentuckian Baptist association of Kentucky. This includes 31 churches in the Evansville - Henderson area. Mr. Stanger is also associated with the Walnut Street Church of Evansville (Indiana) one of 11 Southern Baptist churches in that city, in the promotion of its mission program. As educational director he will have charge of all phases of Sunday School and Training Union work throughout the association. More than 12,000 people are now enlisted in Sunday School and Training Union in this comparatively new association which was organized in 1947.

Miss Alma Graves of Japan who was with us in the W. M. S. Camp and B. W. C. Houseparty at Camp Garaywa wrote on the eve of her departure:

"You will no doubt be interested in knowing how I have invested the gifts, both small and great, received for the work in Japan. First, my 'home' church, Sekan, has increased in membership since the war and each first Sunday when we observe the Lord's Supper an extra communion set from another church has to be borrowed. In compliance with a request from the church, I am carrying them a complete set.

"Secondly, in 1947 when I returned to Fukuoka there came an urgent call for me to teach the Bible in a nearby town that had been anti-Christian for centuries. Week after week we assembled in a large Japanese home where I taught the Bible to a room full of people, crowded together on the floor. Some months later when Dr. W. M. Garrett returned to Japan, I asked him to take over this work since there were signs of a church being born. Then next year a Japanese pastor was assigned to this field. Today it is one of our fastest growing postwar churches. It gives me a peculiar joy to carry them a complete communion set, also as a love gift from you.

"Another long-felt need that is being met through your gifts is the publication of a simplified version of John Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress. While in Columbia University this winter I had time to re-tell and adapt the entire story for first-year students of college age in Japan. The Jordan Press, our Baptist publishing center, is having the printing done. Had it not been for your generosity, though, this publication of one thousand copies could never have been made. This course is required for every freshman entering our college. Perhaps more students are won to Christ through this freshman English class than any other course that is offered in our curriculum. Last year five from my class were baptized into our church and six or more signed inquirers' cards. Heretofore, we have used mimeographed copies for three hundred and fifty odd students. A tremendous task to prepare each year! What a pleasure it will be for them to have this story in a textbook form. Each copy will be sold at a low price, and the money will go into a fund for future publications of the same text.

"What remained in the gift fund has been applied to audio-visual aids which will be used in the classrooms, the church, and in evangelistic meetings.

"God has been good to you and blessed you, and you have shared His blessings. May He continue to bless and use you in the evangelization of our doomed world."

THE EVERY FAMILY PLAN FOR THE BAPTIST RECORD

Practical for Any Church Any Size, Anywhere—
Using Budgeted or Unbudgeted System

THE PLAN

To Send The Baptist Record into all the resident homes of the reasonably active church membership; or
To the families who actively support the church financially.

PRICE

8½ cents per month per family, or 25 cents per quarter or $1.00 per year.

HOW TO DO IT

1. Present the matter to the church in conference, and vote to include The Baptist Record in the budget, paying the account through the church treasury.
2. If the above cannot be done now, call several of the most interested members together, propose that they supplement with extra gifts the cost of the paper until the new budget is made up.
3. All rural churches, fourth time, half time, pastorless or with pastors, all missions, and Sunday schools, are eligible for this rate provided the list of subscriptions includes the name of all the families contributing to the support of the organization. The treasurer of the organization is responsible to The Baptist Record for payment of the account from the regular funds. The budget plan reaches all the families in the church at a lower rate, and the account is paid through the church treasury monthly. The paper reaches more people, at small cost, and with a great deal less trouble to local workers.

VALUE

1. It binds each home to local and world-wide Baptist work each week.
2. It will build denominational loyalty.
3. It will strengthen faith and indoctrinate the masses of our people.
4. The people will read and profit from the paper if the pastor will lead them to use it.

QUARTERLY TREASURER'S REPORT—NOVEMBER, DECEMBER, 1952, JANUARY, 1953

The report below is the record for the first three months (November, December, January) of this Convention year, made by the churches in their gifts to the Cooperative Program and to all other causes through the Convention Board office.

There were 950 churches who gave through the Cooperative Program $268,830.29, a gain over same period last year of $38,826.97. There were 328 churches who designated their gifts, making a total of 1,278 churches giving to some mission cause:

Grand total gifts amounts to $520,077.36 or a gain of $75,934.90 over same period last year.

We rejoice and thank God for these substantial increases. May the Lord bless each and every person and church who had a part in our great mission program.

If there is an error in your record, please write us, and we will gladly make necessary corrections.

J. E. LANE, Treasurer.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

E. C. WILLIAMS, Secretary PAUL D. BOOTHE, Associate
MISS CAROLYN MADISON, Elementary Secretary
MISS JOYCE SUTTON, Office Secretary

A. V. WASHBURN

Mr. A. V. Washburn, secretary of Teaching and Training, of the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn., will come to our THREE Mississippi Sunday School Conventions, at Tupelo, Meridian, and Gulfport, March 10-11-12, and speak on "Growth Through Training" each afternoon, and on "A Million More in '54" at the evening sessions.

This splendid and capable South-wide worker has contributed much to the great growth of the Southern Baptist Sunday school program.

We know that many of our people will be more than delighted to hear this faithful servant as he speaks to us from his heart on a message that is so vital to us all.

MR. LOWRY EMPHASIZES "A MILLION MORE IN '54"

In planning for his associational meeting on Jan. 26, Mr. W. B. Lowry, of Lauderdale Association, stated to his leaders, "This is, in my judgment, the most important meeting that we have ever had in our associational work."

He added further, "If we fail in this meeting, then our work for the whole period will suffer."

How true this is, and all of us need to get going now and keep that way.

THE CONVENTIONS

As has been given in this column every week during 1953, we are having three Sunday school conventions this year, at Calvary Tupelo, Meridian First, and Gulfport First, on March 10-11-12, respectively.

Each will be for a full day, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions. The program is the same for each day, and also the personnel. We ask that you attend the one most convenient.

THE CONFERENCES DON'T GET CONFUSED

The above item is in reference to our Sunday School Conventions. However, this is a statement regarding our Twenty District Conferences.

NOW, PLEASE DO NOT GET CONFUSED.

The three Conventions are March 10-11-12. The 20 conferences are March 23-April 17.

We have these 20 conferences each Spring. They are morning and afternoon only. The program will be sent out soon. They will be at the following places:

Monticello, Meadville, Fayette, Jackson Parkway, Mendenhall — first week.

Second week — Bay Springs, Petal-Harvey, Handsboro, Leakesville, Meridian, South Side.

Third Week — Naxapater, New Albany, West Corinth, Trinity Fulton, Aberdeen.

Fourth week—Leland, Lyon, Batesville, Calhoun City, Winona. Keep these in mind, and you will soon have the program for them.

Debate Club Has 100th Anniversary

Clinton—One hundred year of activity, debating, studying current problems and generally having an interesting and challenging time—that is the score reached this year by the Hermentian Literary Society at Mississippi College.

In honor of the occasion, this week was set aside as "Hermentian Week" by President D. M. Nelson, with speakers who were members of the society during their days here at Mississippi College to appear in chapel programs.

Reminiscence was the order of the day for those folks—Ross Barnett, J. A. Travis, former Hermentians who spoke Tuesday and Wednesday and Gordon Sansing, speaker for the Chapel Services—who were active in many of the student body functions in their time.

History shows that the society was quite active way back before the Civil War—such men as Captain W. T. Ratliff, later president of the board of trustees of the college, and a host of others of prominence were active members of the organization.

The celebration closed Friday with a debate, under the wing of President Jimmy Byrd.

Georgetown Church Scene Of Banquet For Seniors

A unique and delightful affair was given at the Georgetown Baptist Church on Friday, Feb. 20. The Baptist churches of the Georgetown School District cooperated in giving a Christian Education banquet honoring the members of the Senior class and their parents. About 75 people were present. The churches cooperating were Georgetown, Pleasant Hill, Pearl Valley, Rockport, Galilee and Bethel.

Rev. R. W. Porter is Pastor of the Georgetown Church. George Page, of the Pearl Valley Church was chairman of the Steering committee. Mrs. G. D. Purvis was general chairman in the local church. Rev. Benton Evans was toastmaster.

Dr. D. M. Nelson of Mississippi College was the guest speaker for the occasion. In a most impressive manner he portrayed Christian Education as the solution to many of the world problems. Five young ladies from Mississippi Woman's College furnished special music. Dr. I. E. Rouse of Mississippi Woman's College spoke briefly on behalf of the Baptist Colleges.

Other guests were Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Rouse.

There were attractive displays of pictures, campus scenes, leaflets and catalogs.

Dr. John McCall, pastor First Church of Vicksburg, was the principal speaker at the annual Sweetheart Banquet held at First Church Yazoo City, Dr. W. C. Fields, pastor. There were 125 young people present.

BELLEVUE HAS GROUND-BREAKING CEREMONIES

Rev. F. C. Norris turned the first shovel of dirt at dedication and ground breaking ceremonies recently held at the new site of the Bellevue Church, Lebanon Association.

From left to right they are: "Uncle" Mack Clearman, oldest member of the church; R. E. Jones, Chairman of Building Committee; Robert Smith; Woodrow Rushing, Finance Committee Chairman; and Pastor Norris. Second row: Mrs. W. B. Foster, O. R. Johnson; Grady Stringer; F. W. Aultman; Toxey Aultman; and W. A. Cole, Jr.

Electric power has been installed on the site and a water well drilled. Presently the foundation is being poured and plans have been made to start construction immediately.

Rev. J. L. Brown Elected Moderator Of Marshall Co.

The Executive Committee meeting jointly with the Pastors Association of Marshall County at Holly Springs Baptist Church elected Rev. J. L. Brown, pastor of Potts Camp Church, moderator. He will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Rev. H. H. Aultman.

Other officers elected were: Rev. Robert Deline, Sladen, Stewardship chairman; Rev. R. F. Wilmoth, Coldwater, Associational Missions Committee.

The association is planning simultaneous spring revivals March 29-April 11.

Perry County's February Associational Rally Features Training Union

For the past year, Baptists of Perry county have been holding monthly associational rallies. These meetings have grown in interest, and have featured various phases of Baptist work. Friday night, February 13, the associational rally met at Prospect Church, the emphasis being on Training Union. Kermit S. King, State Training Union director, was the main speaker. A motion picture film was shown which was of interest to our workers.

One of the features of the meetings is the reports from the churches. The February report showed several of the churches having study courses, four churches making improvements on their property, one of them erecting a new parsonage, and one church instituting the Lord's Acre plan to finance the church. Bethel Church of Ovette was admitted to the association. Rev. Dan H. Holcombe is pastor.

The March meeting is to be held at New Augusta and with emphasis to be on Brotherhood. J. C. Meadows, of New Augusta, is associational Brotherhood president.

Former Baptist Statistician Dies

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (BP) Eugene P. Alldredge, 77, retired Southern Baptist pastor, statistician, and denominational leader, died in a local hospital, February 22. The cause of death was believed to be a heart attack. He had been ill with the flu for about three weeks.

Dr. Alldredge, a native of Alabama, had served his denomination from 1920 to 1945 as Convention statistician. He was also advisor to American Baptist Theological Seminary in Nashville.

His pastorates, before coming to Nashville, included Amarillo and Dallas, Tex., and Little Rock, Ark. From 1911 to 1912, he was state mission secretary of New Mexico; and, from 1919 to 1920, he was state secretary of the Arkansas Baptist Convention.

Rev. Harold Montgomery, who surrendered to the ministry at the close of the Student Night Program at Christmas in Pearlhaven Church, Brookhaven, preached his first sermon from the Pearlhaven pulpit recently. Rev. Paul Z. Ball is pastor.

BROTHERHOOD DEPARTMENT

W. R. ROBERTS, Secretary JO ANN SUMMERS, Office Secretary

NO JOHNNY—COME—LATELY

The Baptist Brotherhood is no Johnny-come-lately among the agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention. Only sixteen years younger than the Sunday School Board and fourteen years younger than the Baptist Training Union it is approaching a robust and vigorous maturity. With a phenomenal past and a potent present, it faces now, in the prime of life, a fruitful future.

Lawson H. Cooke, wrote in 1951. During the early stages the Brotherhood did not tread a 'primrose path to glory.' On the contrary, and to change our figure, it had to be piloted through very rough waters. Progress at first was very slow. In the early years, a motion was actually made to withdraw its small appropriation and abolish the Brotherhood.

However, the Brotherhood is today kicking its heels merrily instead of making like a corpse, as many job's comforters predicted years ago. The Brotherhood is far from being the dear departed. Instead, it is widely accepted as an indispensable agency of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Brotherhood originated in May, 1907. It grew out of the layman's Missionary Movement. This movement among men was inspired by the need of an organization among the men of the churches to promote missions. The purpose was not only to inform the men about the missionary program of the denomination but to enlist them in a more liberal financial support.

It was born in the Calvary Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia. A group of men from the various states headed by Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, and Gov. W. Northern, of Georgia, met the day preceding the Southern Baptist Convention beginning May 17, 1907, and originated the movement.

After a few years it was felt that Southern Baptists ought to use this organization to enlist men in all the work of the denomination; stressing with special emphasis enlistment, education and stewardship. In 1926 the name was changed to Baptist Brotherhood of the South. Dr. J. T. Henderson was the first executive secretary and served from 1908 until his retirement in 1938. Headquarters was first located in Knoxville, Tennessee, and in 1936 moved to Memphis. Until recently the office was located in the Commerce Building on Main Street in downtown Memphis. On Jan. 1, 1953 headquarters was moved to the new Brotherhood Building at 1 Poplar Avenue, Memphis. This fine two-story building is valued at $50,000.

Mr. Lawson Cooke became the second executive secretary and served from 1936 until his retirement at the close of 1951. Southern Baptists owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Cooke for his wise leadership. The seeds sown through years began to produce fruit. The growth from 1944 to the present has been phenomenal. Pastors and denominational leaders caught the vision of the potentialities of an enlisted manpower. Thousands of church Brotherhoods have been established and hundreds of associational Brotherhoods have been organized in the past decade.

Foundation Meet Held On Coast

Dr. Harry Lee Spencer of Jackson, secretary of the Mississippi Baptist Foundation, is in Edgewater Park, Miss., this week where he has a part on the program of the annual Conference of Southern Baptist Foundation Secretaries meeting Thursday and Friday.

He will speak Friday morning on "Finding the Prospects." Others from the state present and on program include: Dr. Chester L. Quarles, of Jackson, executive secretary State Convention Board; Hon. Carroll Gartin, of Laurel, lieutenant-governor; Dr. D. M. Nelson, president of Mississippi College and Dr. Joe T. Odle, pastor First Church of Gulfport.

Southeastern Increases Faculty

Three men have been added to the faculty of Southeastern Seminary, by action of the Seminary's Board of Trustees. President Synnor L. Stealey made the announcement today during Southeastern's Founders' Day exercises.

Southeastern Seminary, located in Wake Forest, N. C., is an agency of Southern Baptist Convention. Now in its second year of operation, Southeastern is the convention's youngest seminary.

The three appointments are: Pope Alexander Duncan as Professor of Church History, Richard Knox Young as Professor of Pastoral Care, and Garland Alford Hendricks as Professor of Church-Community Development.

Wilbanks Available For Associational Clinics

The director of Evangelism, C. E. Wilbanks left Monday going into the associations to conduct associational clinics, which deal with both phases of our evangelistic program, namely, the organizational-planning phase, and the personal work phase. He has a film strip for presenting the work of the Evangelism Church Council, with personal soul winning being done by the entire church, visiting in the homes of her territory.

He conducted clinics in Leake county, George, Jackson and Greene this week.

If your association plans a clinic, now is the time to get busy and let the State Director know the date which you desire. He is cutting down on the number of revivals in which he is preaching this year in order to give as much time as possible to his co-laborers, association by association.

Inmates Of Prison Farm Accept Christianity

Albuquerque, N. M. —(RNS)—Twenty-seven inmates of the New Mexico State Prison Farm at Los Lunas, south of here, have accepted Christianity in the last six months, members of the Albuquerque Christian Business Men's Committee reported.

Groups of laymen from the Committee make Sunday night trips to the prison farm and hold religious meetings.

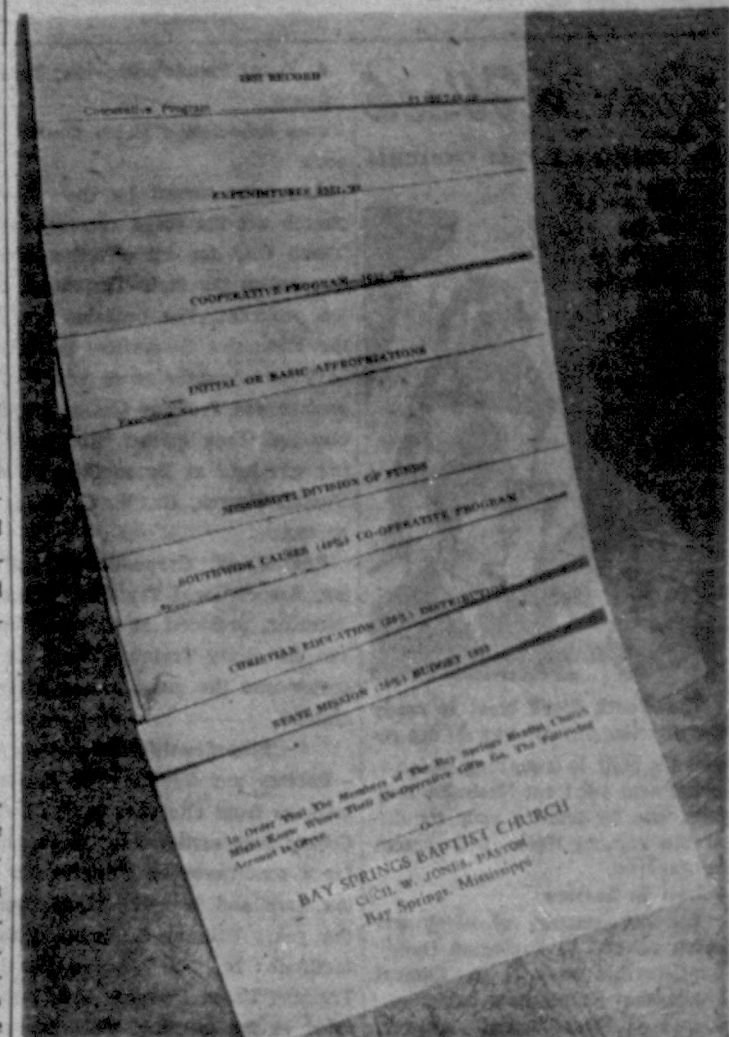

At the first session, only eight convicts attended. Now about 75 men are present.

Dr. John Sutherland, a Committee member, said no one delves into the reasons why the men are imprisoned.

"We just try to awaken the men, who are spiritually dormant," he said. "There is a minimum amount of preaching. We present movies and provide other entertainment."

The Albuquerque CBMC plans to organize a chapter in Santa Fe to visit the State Penitentiary inmates.

Bay Springs Church Learns About State Mission Program

In the picture above are the placards which were used to portray the Cooperative Program during special services Sunday at the Bay Springs Church, Dr. Cecil W. Jones, pastor. Rev. Joe Abrams, State Director of Promotion, brought the morning message to the Bay Springs congregation.

Dr. Cecil W. Jones, pastor of the Bay Springs Church, believes in the old adage that "Informed Baptists are Better Baptists." The cards which are pictured above were distributed among all the members so that they might know how State Mission money is spent.

Emphasis was placed on the Cooperative Program by the pastor, as he visited the Sunday School classes before the morning service and explained the program.

Rev. Joe Abrams, State Director of Promotion, brought the morning message on the work of the State Mission Board and the various causes supported.

Dr. Bolton Commended For Foundation Work

NASHVILLE, Tenn. —(BP)—Dr. Charles H. Bolton, former secretary for the Southern Baptist Foundation and now pastor of the First Baptist Church, Avon Park, Fla., has been commended by the Foundation for "service of permanent value." A resolution adopted by the Foundation stated, "He has established a friendly relationship to all of the state foundations, he has secured the cooperation of all the Southern Baptist Convention agencies, he has prepared and distributed basic literature explaining the purpose of the Foundation and the affairs of the Foundation have been handled in such a manner to merit and receive the commendation of outstanding business men."

Dr. T. L. Holcomb, Nashville, will assume the secretaryship of the Foundation after retiring from the Baptist Sunday School Board early this summer.

SPONSORED BY BAPTIST
 UNION

The Youth Week tract is ready for distribution. All who do not receive a copy in a mailing which is being sent out from Nashville may have one by sending your request to the Training Union Department in Jackson.

School in Session

Thirteen courses of study are being offered to Covington county Baptists this week in a Central Leadership School now being conducted at First Baptist Church, Collins, under the leadership of Mrs. C. C. Rogers, associational Training Union Director.

A methods book is being offered in each department along with an inspirational book. Local teachers include Rev. W. B. Abel, Rev. Chester Moulder, Rev. Byron Mathis, Mrs. Walter Stewart, Mrs. E. E. O'Brien, Rev. Joe Boutwell, Mrs. Gladys Kelley and Rev. Ed Sullivan.

Assisting these local workers are Mr. Wallace Parham, education director of Main Street Church in Hattiesburg; Mr. Auber J. Wild, Approved Adult Worker with the Training Union Department; Mrs. Auber J. Wilds of Oxford, Mississippi; Miss Louise Hill, and Mr. Kermit S. King of the State Training Union Department.

Leaflets On State Convention And Assembly Features Ready

At long last we are able to make the announcement that all leaflets outlining our state convention and assembly features are ready for distribution.

All orders on hand have been filled so if you were expecting to receive some copies and have not done so, your request has probably been misplaced. May we ask that you write us again if such has been the case.

There are four leaflets:

1. Junior Memory Work Drill.
2. State Convention and Assembly Features. This leaflet outlines the rules for the Primary Story Time and the Adult Mission Story Feature. It also states the manner in which the Young People's Speakers Tournament and the Intermediate Sword Drill are to be promoted within the state.
3. Intermediate Sword Drill.

4. Young People's Speaking Tournament.

Yazoo Association Holds Conference

A supper served by the host church set the stage recently at Yazoo City for an effective conference on the state Training Union program. The occasion was the Executive Committee meeting of Yazoo Association to which all pastors and Training Union directors had been invited. The meeting was held at Yazoo City, First Baptist Church, Dr. W. C. Fields, pastor.

Rev. J. W. Carpenter of Anding, Associational Training Union Director, presided at the meeting and the State Training Union Director was the guest of the association.

Pike County Meets

Pastors and Training Union workers from churches in Pike County met earlier this month for a conference on Training Union work and to make plans for the year. William C. Brandon, McComb is the Associational Training Union Director and presided at the meeting. The group assembled at the Magnolia Church of which Rev. W. T. Douglas is pastor.

Rev. Grady Smith Leads Madison Six of the churches of Madison Association were represented in a meeting of Training Union leaders and workers called this month by Associational Director Grady Smith. The meeting was held at First Baptist Church, Canton, which Rev. David Cranford is pastor. Four pastors and four Training Union directors were among the group present.

A special emphasis was placed on the enlargement program scheduled for March and in a general discussion period the state promotional program was outlined. Plans are being completed for a mass meeting in March with Bro. Cranford as the inspirational speaker.

Churches represented at the meeting were Farmhaven, Madison, Lone Pine, Ridgeland, Canton, First, and Center Terrace.

Here's An Idea: Columbia

In planning publicity for their enlargement campaign, the Training Union of First Baptist Church, Columbia, under the leadership of Dr. Russell Bush, Jr., did this. On a given Sunday night a photographer went to each union and department and took pictures of all who were present, in whatever activity they were engaged at the time of his arrival. When developed and printed, these pictures were then given to the vice presidents or leadership of the unions or departments and they then planned and prepared a poster using the pictures. The posters were then placed in strategic points in the building.

Rev. A. Marvin Sanders Accepts New Orleans Post

Rev. A. Marvin Sanders, director of City Missions of the First Church, Brookhaven, resigned Sunday in order to accept the pastorate of the Metairie Church in New Orleans, La. He will begin his work in New Orleans on March 7.

During the six years that Mr. Sanders was with the Brookhaven Church, the mission program resulted in the building of four new churches and plans for a fifth to be built soon. Several other churches have been built in neighboring cities as a result of their mission program.

He served as President of the Lincoln County Pastors Conference and Director of Evangelism in addition to his mission duties.

I. L. Yearby To Be Principal Speaker

Dr. I. L. Yearby, of Little Rock, secretary of evangelism for Arkansas Baptists, will be the principal speaker at the Delta-wide Rally to be held in the college auditorium at Cleveland Monday night, March 2.

This Rally will be in preparation for the Delta-wide Evangelistic Crusade set for March 22-April 5.

Dr. Yearby is an outstanding speaker with a record as a successful evangelistic pastor and he will speak in place of Dr. James W. Middleton, of Shreveport, previously booked for this spot.

Dr. C. E. Wilbanks, of Jackson, state director of evangelism, will direct the Crusade while Rev. W. M. Lee, pastor of First Church of Leland, is chairman of the Crusade steering committee.

—BR—

Rev. James H. Street, pastor of Second Avenue Church, Laurel, will be the visiting evangelist for the revival meeting at the First Church, Petal, March 15-20. Rev. A. T. Walker is pastor.

REV. WYATT M. GILBERT

Rev. Wyatt M. Gilbert pastor of the Douglas Avenue Church, Baton Rouge, La., will be the visiting evangelist for the Revival Services at Horn Lake, March 16-22. Mr. Gilbert was formerly pastor at Heidelberg. The pastor of the Horn Lake Church, Rev. Eugene M. Fleming, will lead the singing.

Pictured above is the architect's drawing of the proposed new educational building and remodeling of the present Prentiss Church building. Dr. L. E. Green is pastor. The church recently accepted the recommendations of the General Building Committee for plans and work is scheduled to begin April 1. The building will have 14 Sunday School departments and recreation facilities with adjoining kitchen.

Eight Deacons Ordained By Church At Belen

Eight deacons were recently ordained by the Belen Church Rev. Joseph A. Mayer, pastor.

They were: Gerald Berry, John Burdine, Chester Dickey, Dewey Foshee, W. C. Furr, Jr., Clausen Peden, Cooper Peden, and George Turner.

The council members were: Rev. Mayer, pastor, Rev. Henning Andrews, pastor of Lula, Dr. Ira D. Eavenson, pastor First Church of Marks, Rev. Albert V. Clark, Jr., pastor of Union Church of Curtis, Rev. M. C. Waldrup, superintendent of missions, Riverside Association, J. A. Vanlandingham, deacon of Belen, A. B. Magee, deacon of Sylvarina Church, and T. D. Howell, deacon of Lula Church.

Why I Preach On Tithing

E. N. PATTERSON

1. Because it is the basis for all Biblical Stewardship.
2. Because it is the only plan taught in the Bible for financing God's work.
3. Because it will solve every financial problem for the local church.
4. Because it would take care of every material need in a worldwide mission program.
5. Because it deepens the spiritual life of everyone who responds.
6. Because Southern Baptists as a group gave less than 1 1/2 per cent of their income last year.
7. Because Southern Baptists kept more than 7 1/2 per cent of their tithe that belonged to God last year.
8. Because the tithe is Holy unto the Lord.
9. Because the Bible is my source of authority in preaching.

I. WHEN THEY CRUCIFIED MY LORD

That was the maddest event that ever occurred in all the mighty tide of time! The Innocent Victim of the stark madness of the mob hanged in agony upon His cross and prayed for his slaughterers: "Father, forgive them; they know not what they do." They were utterly out of their better selves; beside themselves in their unreasoning rage against one who had done them no wrong, but had spent His strength in an effort to bring them life abundant.

That was the saddest event that ever spread a sable pall of sorrow over the face of the sobbing earth! That day when the Savior on the cross forsaken sobbed out His soul in measureless sorrow and the hordes of hell held jubilee around the cross of the Crucified, all the springs of Joy ran tears and the very heart of faith paused midway in its leap and stood congealed like a frozen waterfall.

That was the most ill-boding event that ever darkened a gray day into night! It left the world without a living Savior; it robbed the world of the Bread of Life, it dashed from the hand of the thirsty world the cup of living water and blew out the Light whose lack left the world in impenetrable darkness.

BUT this was the greatest event that had ever occurred since Adam's sin lost Paradise. It completed the work by which the blighting, blasting, blinding deed of the devil was undone and the seed of the women was reinvested with that of which it had been divested in the fatal fall. This was the gladdest event that ever thrilled the harp-strings of heaven with the divine harmonies of celestial music; for it set the joy-bells of heaven ringing with the glad proclamation that the work divine was now finished; the work that meant the gathering unto God and into the heaven of God of a multitude of the redeemed that no man could number.

By now much was the Savior's death the greatest victory for righteousness that steadfast faith in the living God ever wrested from grip of the craftiest adversary of all that is good in the world, on that day when the Author and Finisher of our faith set his victor heel upon the neck of His prostrate antagonist, and bore the glory-light and trophy of His victory through the wide-swinging gates of the paradise of God.

II. The KINGLINESS OF JESUS

Today is known as Palm Sunday, the day of our Lord's Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem and His offering of Himself as the King of Righteousness. And I hear someone say, "Sorry spectacle of a king was He on that day". Be not so precipitate, my friend! It was only the night before that He had heartened his followers with the sweeping proclamation, "In the world ye have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world" (John 16:33). Now had come to pass the prophecy, "Yet I have set my king upon my holy hill of Zion". Never was our Lord more regal than on that day when he looked unabashed into the face of His Roman judge and declared Himself the King of the Jews (Luke 23:3). He set before Himself a kingly course and conquest and, like the gallant sovereign of the souls of men, He marched to its accomplishment. He faced the combat upon the issue of which hung the most momentous consequences ever to hang upon the issue of any battle on any field. This is not one of the fifteen decisive battles of history: it is the one great decisive battle, and the victor was our warrior King.

III. ON THE WAY AND ON THE CROSS

The preparation for the way had lasted all Christ's earthly life. It had grown more intense as he neared the way which led to Calvary. The growing hatred of His enemies was back there, the opposition of the rulers of His people, the agony in the garden on the night before, the arrest, the trials, the desertion of His followers, the piercing pain of the pricklings of the thorns, the humiliation of being spat upon, the biting into His body of the whip-lash of the Roman scourge. And now the weary steps of the walk along the Street of Tears.

The weight of the Cross upon His tired body! And then a relief brought by the impressment of Simon of Cyrene. His help brought relief to the Master of Men. I wonder if Simon ever knew that! I should love to believe that, as he bore the cross for Jesus, he became convinced that the man he was helping was able to help the helper in a way and after a manner above those of the helpers of this world. Simon being pressed into this service, was by thus being impressed made a helper, in the work of God. He stands for the helper from the outside who sometimes comes to the Lord's assistance when His work most needs an extra hand. Life is frequently forcing each of us into some outside task. It might be well for us to resolve that when these compulsions come we will meet them as providences of the Lord, and trust that in yielding to them we advance the interest of His divine kingdom.

IV. ON THE CROSS

Now His body has been laid upon the cross and nailed to it, and now the cross has been set upright on the hilltop. 1. The Derisions. The mob about the hilltop are shaking their fists at Him and mockingly crying to Him, "You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross." And to one another they said, "Let Him come down from the cross and we will believe in Him." "He saved others; He cannot save Himself." And in both these statements they told the truth. He had saved others, and this was the work He came to do. His whole life was

Ridgecrest Camp Director To Visit State In March

"If winter comes, can spring be far behind," when "the voice of the turtle is heard," and if spring comes, most assuredly will come summer. School will be out and at Ridgecrest Boys' Camp, Ridgecrest North Carolina, hundreds of boys each morning "shall rise up at the voice of the bird."

Camp Ridgecrest, sponsored by the Baptist Sunday School Board, is situated in the crest of the Blue Ridge mountains in the Land of the Sky on U. S. Highway 70 eighteen miles east of Asheville, North Carolina, being part of the 1,075-acre tract of the Southern Baptist Assembly.

A member of the American Camping Association, and approved by the North Carolina State Board of Health, Camp Ridgecrest is open each summer for two five-week camping seasons, and gives purposeful training for developing individual initiative and wholesome recreation under Christian leadership for boys 9-16.

Announcement is made by Camp Director Pickering of improved housing facilities and extended recreational areas and activities.

Mr. Pickering will be in Mississippi in the interest of Ridgecrest Boys' Camp March 23-31 and may be contacted at the Baptist Book Store.

The 1953 season, June 8-July 13 and July 16-August 20, marks the silver anniversary of Camp Ridgecrest for Boys.

bound up in this and, unless He saved others, His whole life was a failure. But He could not save others and at the same time save Himself.

2. The force that drove Him to the cross. (a) His own great love. It was the love of God expressed through the life of the Lord Jesus that brought Him to the cross. The highest expression of His love that God the Father ever vouched saved the world was the gift of Christ upon the cross. (b) The wicked hearts of men. Hearts that envied Jesus is popularity with the common people. Hearts proud in their position of leadership that had had their pride wounded by His success in situations where they had failed spurred Him to compass His destruction.

(c) The men about the cross had come to hate Him with a venom that nothing less than His death upon the cross would satisfy. (d) Lying witnesses in the court of law. It was through this means that they procured the verdict of Pilate against Him. In their testimony these witnesses perverted the truth into a lie. (e) Sin. It was the sin of the world that, above all things else hammered the nails through His hands and feet. All that envenomed hate, wounded pride, gangrened envy, and studied lies vented upon His head flowed from the terrible fount of sin.

3. The cross as an estimate of the nature and extent of sin. (a) The estimate of God. Sin is of a character so noxious and deadly that nothing less than the cross would cancel its blighting curse.

CANTERBURY ACCEPTS INDIANOLA CHURCH

DR. KERMIT CANTERBURY
Dr. Kermit Canterbury, pastor of First Church of Charleston the past six years, has resigned to become pastor of First Church Indianola and will begin his ministry there March 9.

He will succeed Rev. David Cranford who recently resigned to become pastor of Canton First Church.

During his ministry at Charleston a new $112,000 building was constructed and the church grew substantially in many ways.

THE YOUTH WEEK LEADERS ASSEMBLED in front of the new Youth Building are Sunday School workers, Boy Scout leaders, and a majority of the young people. They will be in charge of services during Youth Week, March 1-8, at Harmony Church in Jones county. The educational department of the church can be seen to the left and the pastorium in the background. Just beyond the pastorium is a park and playground.

YOUTH WEEK WORKERS of Harmony Church, Jones County, receive instructions from the pastor, Rev. Tommy Fant. The Youth Building in which they are seated will be dedicated during special services to be held Sunday, March 1.

HARMONY CHURCH DEDICATES YOUTH BUILDING; WILL HAVE YOUTH REVIVAL MARCH 1-8

On Sunday, March 1, the beautiful new Youth Building of the Harmony Church in Jones County, will be dedicated during special services. There are five class rooms, utility room, assembly room and a spacious attic for storage in the building. The building and furniture were designed by the pastor, Rev. Tommy Fant, and the men and young people of the church did the erection work. Members of the WMU did the interior painting. Every piece of furniture was built on the job by the men. There were as many as 30 men working on the project in one day and as many as 11 ladies.

When the project was begun on December 8 there was not a penny of money in sight. The Chairman of the Building Committee, Sylvester Smith, had nothing to work with except faith and church authority.

During the building program all phases of the church program have advanced. There have been additions nearly every Sunday. The budget was increased from $10,000 to $16,500 while gifts to outside causes were more than doubled and nearly $6,000 has been deposited in the Building Fund.

The Boy Scout Troop sponsored by the church has donated a piano to the church to be used in the Youth Building.

The planning committee for this project was composed of the following: Leon Scoggins, chairman; Mrs. W. W. Bender, Mrs. Dean Belding, W. W. Norworthy, Ance Jordan, Mrs. Etheridge Bush, Elton Odom, and Rev. Tommy Fant, pastor.

Philippine Educators Fail To Agree On Religious Education Plan

MANILA (RNS) — Educational leaders met here with the government's Undersecretary of Education but failed to agree on a proposal to hold religious instruction classes during regular class hours in Philippine public schools.

The proposal had been made by President Elpidio Quirino in an attempt to end the controversy over religious instruction in the schools.

Philippine law provides for religious instruction on an optional basis for three half-hour periods weekly.

But Roman Catholic leaders have charged that high officials of the Philippine educational system of minorities.

Regardless of a church's size, it should have an effective publicity program in operation at all times. Depending on the means used, publicity can reach a small group or an entire city with the Christian message. The church must inform all whom it seeks to serve. —Practical Church Publicity by Richmond O. Brown.

have obstructed and delayed efforts to give such instruction in the schools.

Educators met here with the new Undersecretary of Education, Benito Panglilan. Opponents of the Quirino proposal cited rulings of former Secretaries of Education who held that the inclusion of religious instruction in regular class hours would "prejudice the rights of minorities."

S'Eastern Seminary Sets New Rural-Work Program

By DR. O. T. BINKLEY

The Southeastern Seminary, dedicated to the clarification of truth and the preparation of men and women for leadership in the churches, is launching a program of Church - Community Development. The aims of the program are to guide students in a thorough study of the function of the church in its community, to develop supervised field work that will enable students to serve and earn while they learn, and to translate the findings of research that will aid pastors and church leaders in a purposeful effort to strengthen the churches and to improve the quality of life in the South.

This program of Church - Community Development is based upon the conviction that we have an opportunity and a responsibility to serve the churches in the small communities of this region. A new type of community has emerged in the South. It is an expanding community whose boundaries have been enlarged by good roads and consolidated schools. It is an organized community which supports agencies designed to meet the needs of the people. In this new type of dynamic community life the country church has an opportunity to release the transforming power of the gospel, to promote the Christian ideals for agriculture and industry, to strengthen the home, and to make religion a qualifying factor in all human relations.

In response to this challenging opportunity, and in a spirit of humble devotion to the living God who is the source of all resources, we declare our purpose to study the religious history of this region and to serve the churches in their efforts to secure adequate leadership, to advance the Christian mission, and to relate the ethic of righteousness and love to community life.

President Stealey has announced that the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has made a gift of $10,000 to enable the Seminary to establish this new department and that Professor Garland Hendricks has been appointed to the faculty as Director of Field Work.

BILL MARSHALL QUILTS WAYLAND PRESIDENCY

PLAINVIEW, Tex. —(BP)—Dr. J. W. (Bill) Marshall has resigned as president of Wayland College, a position he has held since 1947. During his six years as head of the school he raised it from a junior college to a senior institution, doubled the enrolment and added five new buildings.

He also led the school to open its doors to Negro students on the same basis as white students. Eight Negroes qualified for entrance this year.

Dr. Marshall has not announced definite future plans, but said he hopes to return to evangelistic-missionary work and do at least one overseas revival campaign each year.

ABERNATHY, Tex. —(BP)—Last year the First Baptist Church in this small farming community conducted a "Consecration of the Plough" service, using as text, "Consider now from this day and upward. . . Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, as yet the vine and the fig tree and the pomegranate and the olive tree hath not brought forth from this day will I bless you" (Haggai 2:18-19). The pastor, Rev. C. A. Kennedy, asked the members to make an actual commitment of acres to the Lord's work. In spite of the greatest drought in recent years in surrounding communities, the people of Abernathy gathered record crops. Total offerings received as a result of the service and dedication totaled $38,000.

Proposes Liberalization Of Retirement, Annuity

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 17, 1953—Proposed liberalization of the Ministers Retirement and Widows Supplemental Annuity Plans as presented by Dr. Walter R. Alexander, Executive Secretary of the Relief and Annuity Board, to the annual meeting of the Baptist State Executive Secretaries, was met with enthusiasm. The meeting was held in Charleston, South Carolina, Feb. 10-12.

According to Dr. Alexander, the plan should be one which could be adopted by every state in the Southern Baptist Convention. Request for study of such liberalization was made originally by the Baptist of South Carolina. A special committee had been formed to make such a study, with Dr. Paul Wheeler as chairman. Their requests had been studied by the executives of the Relief and Annuity Board in conference with the Board's actuary Mr. George Huggins, Huggins and Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The South Carolina committee, together with their Executive Secretary, Dr. Charles Sims, heard Dr. Alexander speak on all phases that such liberalization would involve. They were in accord with the program presented.

State Executive Secretaries appointed a committee to meet with the Relief and Annuity Board executives. They will meet in Memphis Tennessee, April 7. Dr. Charles Pope will be chairman.

The Committee will make its report to the State Secretaries at a called meeting in Houston, Tex.

WELCOME TO THE RANKS

BY J.M. PRICE

Director
School of Religious Education
Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

We at Southwestern Seminary have read with a great deal of interest the statements in the religious press in recent weeks announcing proposed plans looking toward more extended developments in religious education at three of our other Southern Baptist seminaries.

For a number of years the New Orleans Seminary has offered both the B. R. E. and M. R. E. degrees. It has trained a considerable number of vocational workers in this field both for home and foreign service.

Likewise the Golden Gate Seminary has offered these same degrees and also trained a number of workers for service in this field. In his recent inaugural address President Graves made it clear that this institution proposes to go further along this line not only in training special workers, but also in preparing pastors for service in this field.

Other Baptist seminaries have made similar developments.

Now comes the announcement that the Southern Seminary plans not only to give religious educational degrees, but also to institute a school of religious education and include women as well as men. This is taking several steps all at one time and definitely puts them in the field of training vocational workers in religious education as well as preparing pastors for educational leadership.

As previously stated, we at Southwestern have watched these developments with a great deal of interest. We have looked forward for many years to just such developments. In fact, we have sometimes felt a bit lonesome since we started our pioneering activities in religious education 38 years ago as the first Baptist seminary in America to offer vocational training in the field and give special religious education degrees.

At that time there were only four Baptist churches in the South that had paid workers, and these were by no means typical ministers of religious education. Now there are literally hundreds of churches with these workers and countless others seeking such. Many churches have several vocational workers such as young people's director, youth director, and elementary director along with an educational director and educational secretary. Also there are many calls for workers in schools and on the field.

As churches increasingly recognize that it is through the educational organizations that they have their main missionary outreach, evangelistic opportunity, and stewardship development, these demands will increase. So we welcome these other institutions into the ranks and bid them Godspeed.

as, May 5th. Dr. Alexander also presented the proposed changes before the Southern Baptist Press Association, which met in Charleston simultaneously.
